ADJOURNMENT SUPREME COURT A PRIME FACTOR.

New York, March 21.-The excessive dullness into which the dealings in stocks fell today was ascribed to a waiting attitude on the part of large operative forces. Various factors were assigned as the ground for this attitude, but it was noticeable the clearing up of some of them in the course of the day had little no effect in enlivening the specula-

The adjournment of the supreme court over the spring holiday season disposed of one of these factors. Last week pre-dictions were offered that the supreme court decision in the American Tobacco case would be handed down today and would be handed down today and would be in favor of the company. The failure of verification of this rumor today seemed to throw the market into a state almost of suspended animation. The postponement of the Philadelphia strike settlement, which was hoped for, the reported promise of an adjustment of the dispute with the soft coal miners and the less confident hopes of an agreement in the western railroad firemen's dispute made the influence from the labor side mixed. The apprehension has been growing up that the money market may be subjected to a squeeze in connection with the April settlements. Requirements at that time are normally large, and there are special demands to be met at the coming settlement. The London stock market settlements happens to fall on the same date, and the furious speculation that has been going on in the rubber and oil of the United States..... shares makes a very large account to meet. The falling in of a British war loan complicates the London position.
